Question:

Why do the northerly lands warm much more than elsewhere in a greenhouse climate?

Give at least two reasons!

Answer:

Land warms faster than oceans. Amplified warming due to snow-albedo feedback associated with reductions in snow cover.